CLONLEA VISITATION CONVENT

Loret-

Ish-kabibble to you. A Barney day visit it? Likewise for next year. Be good and watch those cats - you'll learn!

Love,
Margie

Dear Loret-
we've had good times - (nest-cepas?) get that! - I know we have even more to look forward to - love you to visit us soon again - Here's hoping for Fannessey - and you!

Dear Loret,
A year to this has been the seasons we learned (+ ?) don't mean from a book) the gay times with "Betty," our constant banking about "current affairs, etc. I reading forward to next year and all that jive mentioned. Be careful Fellow Practical Joker - hmm?

P.S. I hear Del - rabe up to Covington has moved to 83 largest city in West Virginia - congrats!

Dear Loret,
the best of everything, and more hoping there will be lots of better times next year.
love, Ginny

Dear Loret, this year will, I hope, turn out to be even better for you than last. I've got a dreamboat for you.
really hot. He's a terrific kisser. Here's hoping it will be with me.
love, kisses
back

Eleanor

P.S. Don't think either one of us will forget the swimming picnic

Dear Loret -
Dean Lonely,
It's been fun living across the hall. Watch out for "Betty" and work hard on that French. Hope to see you next year cuz I may need the scissors again. See ya.
Lots of love,
Jill

Take good care of Esther for me - she's so fragile. Loved having you for a neighbor this year, and I sure hope I'll see as much of you next year.
Love and kisses,
Lisa

Dear Loret,
I'm glad your walls can't talk - remember all of our midnight escapades - especially the night
you woke me up - I'm still grinding my teeth at you -
Remember French . . . Leeann
. . . your neighbor, etc -
Hope I see you next September. Take care of Virginia
Love,
Bobbie

Dear Lou,
Just keep 'em laughing with those funny jokes
& nobody will come back next Sat. to see that going to Linda's afternoon - Watch out.
girl this afternoon - Watch out.
She just loves it like you Lou, Sorry.

Mike
(Mary Ann Hall)

Best of luck
Mrs. Slattery
he sure is a doll
By the way I saw him today. You did! Where?
Mrs. You think he will be there tomorrow?
You are swell and I'll
miss you next year

Love,
(Grosey)
Suzy

Dear Loret,
Never will
forget all the laughs,
etc., we had this year.
certainly was great.-
Hope the snake
Next year - Looks it back
Be good and have a wonderful summer - Yours
a sweet gal - Love,

Freshman Class History

Shall we ever forget that first day! Meeting the many new faces—faces which would become very familiar in the next two years.

The few days that followed were a combination of homesickness, confusion, and anticipation. Our "big sisters" helped us greatly by befriending us and making us feel more at home. Shortly, the days began to slip by, one by one, and looking back, we wondered just where they had disappeared, and our memories recalled events that occurred after our arrival. Following the many tests, we were enthusiastic about the Faculty-Student Dinner where we met our future teachers. Then came St. Margaret Mary's feast day, and that night, the Marshmallow Roast at the Slave Cabin. At the Cap and Gown Ceremony we really felt we belonged, for we became members of the Student body. One Friday night during the football season, we were invited to the University to a rally and dance. We were grateful for the general permission given us.

The Thanksgiving Holidays came and went and we found ourselves preparing for the Bazaar, the Christmas holidays, and then the New Year. Next came those inevitable exams, and then the beginning of a new semester. We began the semester with the Grads Tea Dance and some of us attended the Junior Prom at the University.

Lent began, and ending it, we experienced our first college retreat—then came Easter vacation.

In May, excitement reigned king, for we were all preparing in advance for the most wonderful dance of the year—the Cotillion. Preparation for finals followed, but they weren't looked forward to with same type of excitement, to be sure.

The many grads we came to know so well graduated in June, and many were the sad good-byes, but for us, the Freshmen, another joyous year was ahead.

ACTIVITIES

The Sodality

Top to bottom: M. L. Kane, M. M. Toland, M. K. Wendel, K. Dennany, A. Walsh, M. Bogner.

Prefect	Kathleen Dennany
First Assistant	Margaret Mary Toland
Second Assistant	Marianne Bogner
First Consultor	Mary Louise Kane
Second Consultor	Mary Katherine Wendel
Secretary-Treasurer	Ann Walsh

The Sodality of Our Lady is an organization composed of those who wish to follow Christ more closely within their own state of life. Its characteristic motivating force is the association of members with the Blessed Virgin Mary. Personal sanctity and apostolic work constitute the double purpose of the Sodality.

Toward this first end, personal sanctity, our Sodality has been active in promoting Sodality Communion on Sundays, daily recitation of the Rosary in the Chapel, and participation in the living Rosary in October and May.

In achieving the second purpose, apostolic work, our Sodality has sponsored such activities as monthly visiting and entertainment at both Saint Ann's Orphanage and at the Catholic Home for Aged Ladies, securing subscriptions to the Sodality magazine Action Now, enrollment of members in the Apostleship of Prayer, a stamp drive for the missions, and a clothes drive for the needy children.

Under the heading of Sodality stem four subdivisions, committees in which a Sodalist actively participates. These include the Apostolic Committee, which has already been mentioned; the League of the Sacred Heart, a crusade of prayer which many of the Sodalists enter for the purpose of more completely carrying out the Sodality's motto, "To Jesus through Mary"; the Eucharistic Committee which cares for and prepares the altar for daily Mass; and the Publicity Committee, which informs the members of the most recent Catholic books, movies, and pamphlets.

By their participation in these activities, the members have tried to live up to the ideals and teachings of the Sodality, and in so doing have truly earned the tilte of "Children of Mary".

The Student Council

President	Clair Maguire
Resident Vice-President	Sallie Newell
Day Student Vice-President	Jude McCarthy
Secretary-Treasurer	Joan Farrell

The individual student is the basis of any college organization. The purpose of the Student Government Association is to encourage contributions, instill a spirit of democracy, encourage obedience to authority, and to further develop self-honor. The students by their allegience to this association, maintain a closer harmony among themselves. The Student Government Association serves as an intermediary between the students and the faculty.

Besides its own officers, the President, the Vice-Presidents, resident and day student, and the Secretary-Treasurer, the Student Council is composed of the class presidents, and the heads of the major school organizations.

Meetings of the entire student body once a month enable the students to voice their suggestions, views, and inquiries. The Student Council meets every two weeks, at which meetings it strengthens the association by submitting propositions and discussing problems.

Each year the association assumes more responsibility, and thus grows in importance. Perhaps the most outstanding development during the course of the year was the unexcelled amount of disciplinary decisions conferred upon the officers of the association.

Under the capable and enthusiastic leadership of Clair Maguire, the Student Council has, among other things, revised the handbook, submitted changes in the penalties for rule violations, and lead in raising funds for worthy organizations.

The Green Gate

Editor	Fay Stickford
Assistant Editor	Maureen Brennan
Business Manager	Mary Ellen Hickey
Photography Editor	Joan Roddy
Assistant Photography Editor	Hilda Mary Ring

In September when our optimistic staff gathered for the first time, the 1952 GREEN GATE was a new-born idea. It was carefully nursed and cherished, and only when we began to work with Mr. Leo Hessler, the photographer, and Mr. I. H. Chamberlain, of the Horn-Shafer Company, did our nebulous ideal start to materialize. We were very fortunate in having the help and interests of the students, for it is the small and thankless jobs that make a successful book.

The Post Script

Editor	Mary Elizabeth Engert
Associate Editor	Joanne Juergens
Feature Editor	Fay Stickford
Sports Editor	Betty Tisinger
Business Manager	Kathleen Dennany

The POST SCRIPT is edited not only to reflect the views and interests of the student body, but primarily to foster enjoyment in writing in those who have the talent. The main projects sponsored by the POST SCRIPT during the year are the May Festival, given to raise funds for the paper's support, and the Christmas contest, which enables the prospective staff members to try their skills. The paper serves both to inform the students and to enable them to develop skill and ease in writing.

Mask and Shadow Club

President — Joan Cavanaugh
Vice-President — Joan Fitzpatrick
Secretary-Treasurer — Frances Burns

The Mask and Shadow Club entertained the school with its Christmas performance, A Child Is Born, and the spring play, Find the Girl. The Christmas play was produced without scenery or costumes, a combination of radio-broadcast and reading-recital. In contrast to this was the spring play, a mystery-comedy.

We feel that the success of these plays was due in large measure to the direction of Mrs. Caroline McKinley Ashbrook, and we found that truly, "The fun of a play is in the rehearsing."

International Relations Club

President — Stephanie Coleman
Vice-President — Laurie Jones

The International Relations Club has for its aims the fostering of better international relations and the deeper understanding of current world problems.

Meetings are held monthly, and the members report on contemporary affairs and discuss them. Guest speakers are invited three or four times a year to relate their personal experiences and discuss events of current interest. The club members attend lectures and round-table discussions at other colleges, and representatives are sent to the annual Mid-Atlantic Regional Conference.

The Glee Club

President	Christine Leclaire
Vice-President	Mary Weller de Grandpré
Secretary	Carol Coleman
Treasurer	Patricia Leclaire
Librarians	Margaret Mary Toland
	Margaret O'Brien

Some thirty-five girls were selected at the Glee Club tryouts in September. With Mrs. Florence Howard as directress, the Glee Club began practice for its Christmas entertainment. The members, dressed in peasant costumes representing many nations, offered a colorful and unique program.

Miss Diana Steiner, a young violinist of Philadelphia, was presented at a Tuesday assembly in December.

Selections from Oklahoma were featured at the spring concert, for which rustic attire was worn.

The Choir

President	Margaret Liddy
Secretary	Mary Elizabeth MacDonald
Librarians	Margaret Mary Toland
	Ellen Lynch

The Choir gives every member a deeper understanding of liturgical music and allows her to participate more fully in the Mass. The organization's activities for the year are as follows: Mrs. Florence Howard, directress, led the Choir and the student body in the Mass of the Holy Ghost, which marked the beginning of the school term. In October, the Mass in honor of Saint Margaret Mary was sung and in March the opening and the closing Masses for the Forty Hours' Devotion, and the Baccalaureate Mass closing the scholastic year. In addition to these and other feast day Masses, the Choir sings the Benedictions for special occasions.

The Athletic Association

President	Betty Tisinger
Secretary-Treasurer	Teresa Gardiner
Gold Team Captain	Joan Fitzpatrick
White Team Captain	Barbara Frank

Spirit, cooperation, and success characterized the Athletic Association program this year, under the direction of Mrs. James Evans and the supervision of Sister Mary Cecilia. Basketball and hockey thrills were not infrequent, with a number of outcomes featuring a G.V.C. victory. In between the major games and long practices, badminton, ping-pong, and tennis enthusiasts entered tournaments for individual honors, while softball attained prominence by attracting many supporters from both classes.

The groundwork for the activities of the organization was laid by Isabel Perry before she was called home. Her successor, Betty Tisinger; Gold Team Captain, Joan Fitzpatrick; White Team Captain, Barbara Frank; and Secretary-Treasurer, Terry Gardiner then plunged into the year with a campaign to raise and encourage school spirit to support the games and events sponsored by the Association. A cheerleader squad was organized and led by Joan Roddy, and the entire student body shared in the fun and success of the year's activities.

The season drew to a traditional close on Cup Night, when letters and trophies were awarded to the outstanding athletes of 1951-52, a permanent reminder for future years of their determination and achievement.

The Class of 1952

"Take the pep from a bowl of Wheaties—"
Our Freshman song: we were so proud of it, and Happy to be students here at Georgetown,
Loving every minute spent with friends at games and parties.
Each time a drive was scheduled for the school,
We entered and we won—The last Home Talent Show—what fun it was. The freshman Class' party at the Gold-White game and Mrs. Monaghan;

The joy of being Freshmen with three years yet to come.
Loud and clear we sang our Sophomore song:
"We are the class with the spirit that lasts"
At drives, the flower show, basketball, and hockey,
Miss McKinley and the Pageant, the luncheon on St. Patrick's Day, Selling cakes for Mrs. Crowley, Thursday afternoons at Press Club,
Our edition of the Wicket!
Silas Marner, Julius Caesar, and geometry, a class dance at Christmas, and the Sophomore-Senior party: our second year at Georgetown.

Of Junior year, "There's not a class in all this land that's finer!"
Big sisters now, the Sacred Music Club on television.
Fourteen "trotless" Juniors try to translate Cicero;
Boy With A Cart and Shubert Alley give Juniors starring roles.

For Bishop's Fund, a new idea, a movie! Spring brought many Parties with the Junior-Senior picnic and Invitations to the Prom. Then it was all over;
The Seniors had moved on and we became the Class of '52.
"Farewell, Georgetown, we may never meet again—"
We sang it first by candlelight and began to look ahead
To June and graduation. The Marshmallow Roast was better than ever,
Our skit won first prize!
Ye olde Seniors read the rules of Freshman Week
At the Baby Party,
And for a week we lived in luxury.

The "long wait" ended in December, our rings at last!
Proof that we were seniors.
We made our last retreat at Georgetown, the best we'd ever made;
Our lovely queen of Mardi Gras reigned for a night of fun.
Our Prom, the Tea Dance, graduation parties and finally—exams!
Then Commencement came—and the words of our class song reechoed in our hearts—
"This Class of '52 will meet again."

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of 1952, being of fairly sound body and mind, and gleefully clutching our signed diplomas, do, on this great day in our lives, June 4, 1952, bequeath all our possessions accumulated during our high school days to our successors, the Class of 1953:

Junior Class History

After initiating our little sisters into the ways of Georgetown, we settled down and took "Milton" in our stride.

Time passed quickly with our traditional Hallowe'en party, our November picnic, the tea dance, and the prom. We were proud, too, of our efficient officers, Mary Jane, Becky, and Sandy.

We will always remember Carolann's Aruba summer and the tales of the Army-Navy week end. This year has ended all too quickly and it is hard to imagine ourselves as the "Seniors of '53."

Freshman Class History

This first September days certainly had us confused, but everything soon straightened itself out.

We surely will have pleasant memories of this year. Where would we be without Sister Cecilia? We recall with pride: Denny, Lisa, and Anne making the hockey teams; Freshman Week and Molly's Charleston; Didi's punctuality for religion; and giggles during algebra. Under the capable guidance of Sue, Muffet, and Joan, we have gone down in Georgetown history as another "spirited" class.

Sophomore Class History

We returned this year with Anne as president, Mary Louise, vice-president, and Chris, secretary, eager to accomplish things. We were first victorious on the hockey field, with several of our members represented on the varsity. Our play for the Marshmallow Roast was a hilarious success, and our scholars, Mary Catherine, Judy, Mary Anne, and Mary Frann were again featured on the honor roll.

We are eagerly awaiting our junior year and the privileges of upperclassmen.

The Sodality

Prefect	Jane Grove
First Assistant	Harriet Magovern
Second Assistant	Mary Jo Schmitt
Secretary	Patricia Hall

It is truly an honor to be a member of the Children of Mary Sodality of Georgetown Visitation Convent, which is the most important and rewarding activity in which a student may participate.

This year we are entering our one hundredth year of organization, for, although we were definitely established earlier, our first recorded reception of new members is December 8, 1852. In 1867 we became affiliated with the "Prima Primaria," or Mother Sodality, in Rome, under the title of the Immaculate Conception.

We are most fortunate in having as our moderator, Sister Mary Agnes, who has helped us to be "Mary-like in every action." Proudly assisting her were: Prefect, Jane Grove; First Assistant, Harriet Magovern; Second Assistant, Mary Jo Schmitt; and Secretary, Pat Hall.

The most important project of the Sodality is the financing of the education of our priest-brother, Brother Leonard, M.S. S.T. In three years he will be ordained, and how wonderful it is to know that we have helped to train one of Christ's representatives!

We also maintain a sanctuary lamp in a western mission church, contribute to the Mission Stamp Exchange and clothing drive, fill stockings for the Red Cross, and dress dolls for the Christ Child Society, spread Catholic literature, and publish the Sodality Communique.

Our spiritual activities include: The Office, First Friday Stations, the Valentine Heart, the May Ladder and devotions.

It is the desire of every Sodalist to imitate Mary's splendid virtues, for we believe that by doing so we will be guided to a richer, fuller life.

The Student Council

President Alice Emmet
Vice-President Kathryn Harrigan
Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo McQuail

The Student Council is the governing body of the Student Government Association. The Council meets each week to discuss current problems and to find ways and means by which these problems can be solved. This year, under the leadership of Alice Emmet, with Kay Harrigan as vice-president and Mary Jo McQuail as secretary, the Council decided to revise the duties of the officers and to extend membership to the presidents of all the major organizations in the school. This change will enable each group participating in the various activities to have a representative who will make known its respective needs to the Council, and in this way achieve greater unity among all the groups.

The Council, with the consent and cooperation of the student body, established the honor system in all the study halls. Mother Margaret Mary graciously yielded to the request of the Student Council that the two lower and two upper classes be allowed to have a joint tea dance this year. The president reminded the girls that such privileges called for greater responsibility on their part, which, if properly discharged, will merit further concessions in the future.

At all times the Student Council has tried to keep in mind the betterment of the citizenship of the students and the principles on which Georgetown was founded.

The Dramatic Club

President — Mary Louise Bishop
Secretary-Treasurer — Eugenia Moore

This year the Dramatic Club has presented under the expert direction of Mrs. Caroline McKinley Ashbrook, the play Holy Night. The success of the play was due primarily to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Ashbrook and Sister Mary Frances. Our officers this year were Mary Louise Bishop, president, and Eugenia Moore, secretary.

For our Spring presentation we gave the mystery-comedy, Murder in a Nunnery, which delighted the whole audience.

We can confidently state that this was the club's most successful and popular year.

The Debating Team

President — Chris Anne Montgomery
Secretary-Treasurer — Regina Malloy

The city-wide Debating League was expanded to include eight schools this year. The extra debates provided more opportunities for members to gain experience and familiarity with the subject: Universal Conscription in Wartime. We learned a great deal by working together, helping one another under the guiding spirit of Sister Teresa, our moderator. With Chris as president and Regina as secretary, the Debating Club was eminently successful in attaining its two-fold goal: to be first, good speakers, and second, good debaters.

First row, left to right: M. Walshe, M. L. Bishop, C. Montgomery, E. Hepburn, A. Emmet, M. J. Gallagher. Second row: P. Scanlan, J. O'Neill, L. Bowman, R. Malloy, H. Manogue, M. F. Somers, K. Heffernan.

The Green Gate

Editor-in-Chief — Diane Chippendale
Business Manager — Mary Louise Bishop
Photography Editor — Claire Fredericks

This year's staff resolved to begin work immediately. The ad campaign started quickly when Business Manager Mary Louise, with volunteers, canvassed the city, persuading businessmen to buy ads.

Assured of sufficient funds, Editor-in-Chief Diane and the staff, spurred on by class co-operation, endeavored to produce a book worthy of the school and class.

We have tried to portray realistically life at Georgetown with all its spirit, scenes, and memories as they will be with us always.

Seated, left to right: D. Chippendale, C. Fredericks. Standing: D. Percy, C. Mulheron, S. Sasseen, M. L. Bishop.

The Wicket

Editor-in-Chief — Chris Anne Montgomery
Associate Editors — Loise Fee, Joan O'Neill

The birth of a WICKET is a chaotic process. The paper is laid out by the editor Chris Anne Montgomery, and associate editors Louise Fee and Joan O'Neill. Assignments are given, and at last all articles are approved and sent to the printer. He prints the dummy sheets to be corrected, laid out and returned. Finally our brainchild arrives and surveying it, we decide that it is worth all the "blood, sweat, and tears."

First row, left to right: E. Donahue, C. Mulheron, B. Horigan, B. Eakin, B. Wallace, E. Curran. Second row: S. Hixson, K. Crocco, M. Somers, K. Grogan, I. Miller, J. O'Donnell, J. Nogara, C. Doolan, L. Kinnear. Third row: H. Manogue, M. J. Gallagher, P. Dugan, M. Miller, D. May.

The Press Club

President — Bettine Horigan
Secretary-Treasurer — Betsy Eakin

The Press Club opened by electing Bettine Horigan, president, and Betsy Eakin, secretary. The class endeavored and succeeded in mastering the fundamentals of journalism.

If one looked in at a meeting she would see twenty-three girls discussing such things as news articles, feature stories, and headlines. We looked forward to editing our issue of the WICKET, for then we demonstrated our writing talents and tried to match the seniors' wonderful work.

The Sewing Club

President — Josianne de Matteis
Secretary — Maria Murphy

We had sixteen members this year who met every Thursday to work on skirts, blouses, dresses, and even raincoats, under the guidance of Mrs. LaShelle. Officers were Josianne de Matteis, president, and Maria Murphy, secretary.

We climaxed the year with a fashion show which exhibited the results of hard work. Our meetings were very worthwhile and interesting and will stand us in good stead in later days.

The Glee Club

President — Louise Fee
Secretary-Treasurer — Mary Alicia Callahan
Librarian — Marianna Salvati

The Glee Club provides a constructive outlet for exuberant spirits. Among the year's activities was a Christmas concert in which the club formed a Christmas tree with lighted candles and sang traditional Yuletide carols. A Spring concert was also enjoyed by the entire school.

With our moderator Miss Nancy Thayer, our accompanist, Angela Dondero, our officers: Marie Louise Fee, president; Mary Alicia Callahan, secretary; and Marianna Salvati, librarian; the Glee Club achieved a very successful year.

Sacred Music Club

President — Angela Dondero
Librarians — Suzanne Hixson
Peggy Scanlan
Judith Nogara

Under the able leadership of Miss Nancy Thayer, the Sacred Music Club this year acquired a workable knowledge of Gregorian Chant and church music. The club was especially honored in being asked to sing the Benediction on the feast of Saint Margaret Mary and also the Benediction closing Retreat.

This year our president was Angela Dondero, assisted by librarians Suzanne Hixson, Peggy Scanlan, Eileen Curran and Judith Nogara, all of whom were very capable.

First row, left to right: M. J. McQuail, S. Hixson, E. Curran, R. Malloy, A. Dondero, A. Emmet, M. Somers, B. Mersch, M. Gerin. Second row: P. Buckley, M. Hurney, M. Curran, L. Fee, E. Donahue. Third row: P. Scanlan, A. Fahy, M. Ebel, H. Manogue, M. J. Schmitt, E. Hanson, K. Grogan, I. Miller, D. Wilson, P. Dugan, M. Buckey, M. L. Bishop.

The Riding Club

President — Kathryn Harrigan
Vice-President — Joyce Heimann
Secretary-Treasurer — Rebecca Shriver

The Riding Club began a new year with Kay as president, Joyce as vice-president and Becky as secretary. Since there were so many new members, the club was divided into two sections. Some began jumping soon and others reviewed their riding.

All year was spent in preparation for the Horse Show, which is always a big occasion. A cup was given on Cup Night to the girl who showed the most improvement, and with that another year closed.

The Latin Club

President — Mildred Miller
Secretary — Mary Louise Hurney
Committee Chairman — Mary Cheseldine

Something new has been added to the many extracurricular activities at Georgetown. Under the direction of Mrs. Irene Crowley, the third year Latin class has formed a club called the Aquilian Council. As a motto we chose, "Ad astra per aspera", (To the stars through bolts and bars). This club was started with Mitzi as president, Mary Louise as secretary, and Mary Cheseldine, committee-chairman, to instill in its members a greater appreciation for Rome and her culture.

The Athletic Association

President	Joan McCullough
Secretary-Treasurer	Regina Malloy
Captain of White Team	Roberta Kent
Captain of Gold Team	Mary Alicia Callahan

This year "the A.A.", guided by Joan, president, Regina, secretary, Mitzi, White Captain, and Malish, Gold Captain, was represented at city-wide play-days, and at the hockey clinic. The annual Marshmallow Roast was a marvelous success and enjoyed by everyone. Two additional trophies were presented on Cup Night: one to the best gym class and the other to the intramural champions. The friendly, competitive spirit that marked the school and class games made this year a memorable one for the A.A.

The Challenge
TO YOUR FUTURE

Stated simply, we believe, it is this: Will the fundamental freedoms and decency of the American family be preserved and uplifted in your generation . . . or will they, through our own neglect, be overcome by the most Godless system of dictatorship and debauchery the world has ever seen?

We refer, of course, to Communism . . . and particularly Communism in America which has subtly reared its head with appeals to our better nature, and the fancied wrongs of the so-called "common man." We submit: there are no "common men". . . or women . . . in America. Only one people . . . and better off, as a people, than any nation on earth.

As the years go on, it will be up to American women, particularly . . . to you, and you, and you . . . to fight this un-Christian doctrine, this destroyer of Church, religion, home, and all morality, and by fighting it erect on the foundations of the Great Republic a better America . . . for all.

To Loret.
Who shares some what the same separation as I (unhappily) Pixie + ea Burgi) Paris to next year. Yours truly of yours. Sure hope we get through. We'll have to pray hard.
Love,
Sally
Much luck, kid,
with Ben Pixies and all.

Dear Loret,
this year was has been great & especially with our little (!) reunions of French with a dear friend a Terrific summer. You'll probably be anxious to get back next year to the dear old Potomac R.
and "Ish".
Love,
Leanne

Dear Loret- Well weive learned quite a lot this year - not all from books, so here's hoping we can profit from experience, ek?
Muck love and luck to a very sweet girl -

Nancy

Dear Lorette, Lauet, or Loret (don't know how to spell it!!!).

Must go do my Sociology outlines now - Ish'nt that right!!?! - stay loose and don't Dorget to come back next year - (in spite of French) -

Lots of love,
Kathie
(Florence to you.)
